Oath of Women's Leadership

I swear by Allah Almighty to be loyal, theoretically and practically, to causes of freedom, justice, equality, human rights and women's human rights in accordance with the International Bill of Human and Peoples' rights, and to always try to develop my leadership skills as long as I can afford it, in service of my country, my nation, and humanity.