Amman Center for Human Rights Studies

The Amman Center for Human Rights Studies strongly condemns the fatal shootings that occurred on Monday 29th July 2019 in El-Obeid, Sudan. The attacks targeted a protest organised by high school students protesting military rule. 5 individuals were killed, 4 of which were school children, and an undefined number are injured.

The Center extends its deepest sympathies to the families of the victims, the students and the Sudanese community. Our thoughts and prayers are with Sudan, and we hope that this won't be an indicator of Sudan's future. The Center stands in solidarity with the Sudanese people.
